1. Are you eligible?

Eligibility requirements:

- The total gross household income (income before deductions) for all household members is less than the maximum allowed for our programs (calculated in Section 4).
- You and every member of your household is either a permanent legal resident of Canada or have Permanent Resident status.
- You do not currently live in housing owned and operated by Housing Nova Scotia.
- If you owe money to the Housing Authority, you must be willing to repay that money over time.
- For most units, you must have lived in the municipality where you are applying for twelve (12) consecutive months during the last twenty-three (23) months, or, must have lived in the municipality for five (5) consecutive years since you turned 18.

2. How to fill out this application

- Answer all the questions in every section of the form. If you cannot answer one or more questions, take note of all the questions you have and contact us at the email or phone number above.
- Copies of supporting documents will be requested at a later date to make sure the information provided is correct.
- Read Section 7 - Declaration and Consent carefully. It is your legal promise that the information you provide is truthful. You and your spouse/co-applicant (if you have one) must both sign Section 7 of the application and you both must initial each statement.

A good thing to know | This program matches Nova Scotians with low and moderate incomes with safe, stable housing they can afford. It doesn't offer emergency housing like other organizations do. Eligible applicants are added to the housing waitlist and are matched with a home when there is a vacancy.

3. Household Information

Please provide information about yourself, your spouse and all other adults and children who will live in your home. If you need more space, please use a separate piece of paper.

Your spouse is the person you are married to or live with in a marriage-like relationship (common-law). Your spouse is your co-applicant. Any other adult who will sign the lease is also a co-applicant.

'Relationship to Applicant' refers to how the person is related to you; for example: child, sibling, parent etc.

'Status in Canada' refers to whether you are a Canadian Citizen or Permanent Resident.
